

Lt. Bernard McGuire Killed In Plane Crash In Ohio

Mrs. Minnie McGuire, Daniel, received word from the war department that her son, First Lt. Bernard J. McGuire, 23, was killed in an aircraft accident at Williamsport, Ohio, on Monday.

He was born September 28, 1921, at Daniel, and was graduated from Wasatch high school in 1939. He enlisted in March 1942, and received his wings April 12, 1943. He was assigned overseas in October. Upon completion of 30 missions over German territory he was awarded the Air Medal with three Oak Leaf Clusters and the distinguished Flying Cross. After he returned home in July 1944, he was awarded the Presidential Citation for his activity overseas.

He is survived by his mother, four sisters, Mrs. Laura Graham, Salt Lake; Mr. Clara Anderson, Tooele, Utah; Florence and Laree McGuire, Daniel; five brothers, Sgt. Rupert E. McGuire, South Pacific; A/C Bert H. McGuire, San Angelo, Texas; Bruce, Fay, and Clyde McGuire, Daniel.

Funeral arrangements are pending word from the two brothers in service.

Military Funeral Held Sunday For Lt. Bernard McGuire

Military funeral services were held for Lt. Bernard McGuire in the Wasatch Stake Tabernacle at 2:00 o'clock Sunday afternoon, November 26, with Lee Johnson, Commander of the American Legion in charge. Bishop Preston McGuire of Daniel Ward presided and counselor Earl Jacklin conducted the services after the Legion had the opening numbers.

The color guard was composed of a returned veteran and three soldiers on furlough, Sherel Meeks, Bill Nelson, Clark Webster and Sylvan Burgi. Flags were placed on either side of the casket. The Legion marched down both isles in the Tabernacle and took their places on the stand.

Prelude, Ethel Watson; song, Midway quartet, consisting of Karl Probst, Reed Kohler, Rulon Huntington and Roy Huffaker, "The Army Air Corps"; prayer, Z. A. Bethers; speaker, George B. Stanley, Legionnaire, life of Bernard McGuire; solo, "Until Tomorrow," Bert Dayton, accompanied by Merle D. Mayhew; remarks, George Johnson, a relative; duet, "American Prayer", Mrs. Nettie Bonner and Mr. Stuart, accompanied by Mrs. Jennie Johnson; consoling remarks, Pres. H. Clay Cummings; Midway quartet, "From the Campfire"; closing remarks, Earl Jacklin; closing prayer, John Thacklin; postlude, Ethel Watson; graveside prayer, Erwin T. Hicken.

The Legion and returned and furloughed soldiers marched ahead of cortege and then in cars to the Heber City cemetery where burial took place. This was in charge of the American Legion and a military burial then took place. Prayer was offered over the grave by Erwin T. Hicken. The flag was taken from the casket and folded by Guy Duke; and Earl Smith and Irwin Hicken presented this flag which draped the casket to Barney's mother, Mrs. McGuire, in behalf of the government of the United States of America. The wings which were awarded to Lt. McGuire were then awarded to his mother by Lt. Stoll, a buddy of Barney's who accompanied the body to Utah for interment. Lt. Stoll impressively pinned this set of wings on Mrs. McGuire. Lee Johnson called attention and the firing squad fired a volley of three shots as burial military honor to the departed soldier. Taps were sounded by Dick Wright and the "echo" by Ramon Duke.

Lt. Bernard McGuire was a war casualty, having met his death in an airplane accident in Ohio. He had completed 30 missions over Europe and had returned home on furlough last July. He was a

Prelude, Ethel Watson; song, Midway quartet, consisting of Karl Probst, Reed Kohler, Rulon Huntington and Roy Huffaker, "The Army Air Corps"; prayer, Z. A. Bethers; speaker, George B. Stanley, Legionnaire, life of Bernard McGuire; solo, "Until Tomorrow," Bert Dayton, accompanied by Merle D. Mayhew; remarks, George Johnson, a relative; duet, "American Prayer", Mrs. Nettie Bonner and Mr. Stuart, accompanied by Mrs. Jennie Johnson; consoling remarks, Pres. H. Clay Cummings; Midway quartet, "From the Campfire"; closing remarks, Earl Jacklin; closing prayer, John Thacklin; postlude, Ethel Watson; graveside prayer, Erwin T. Hicken.

The Legion and returned and furloughed soldiers marched ahead of cortege and then in cars to the Heber City cemetery where burial took place. This was in charge of the American Legion

Military Funeral Held Sunday For Lt. Bernard McGuire

Dec 1944

Military funeral services were held for Lt. Bernard McGuire in the Wasatch Stake Tabernacle at 2:00 o'clock Sunday afternoon, November 26, with Lee Johnson, Commander of the American Legion and a military burial then took place. Prayer was offered over the grave by Erwin T. Hicken. The flag was taken from the casket and folded by Guy Duke; and Earl Smith and Irwin Hicken presented this flag which draped the casket to Barney's mother, Mrs. McGuire, in behalf of the government of the United States of America. The wings which were awarded to Lt. McGuire were then awarded to his mother by Lt. Stoll, a buddy of Barney's who accompanied the body to Utah for interment. Lt. Stoll impressively pinned this set of wings on Mrs. McGuire. Lee Johnson called attention and the firing squad fired a volley of three shots as burial military honor to the departed soldier. Taps were sounded by Dick Wright and the "echo" by Ramon Duke.

Lt. Bernard McGuire was a war casualty, having met his death in an airplane accident in Ohio. He had completed 30 missions over Europe and had returned home on furlough last July. He was a postlude, Ethel Watson; graveside prayer, Erwin T. Hicken.

The Legion and returned and furloughed soldiers marched ahead of cortege and then in cars to the Heber City cemetery where burial took place. This was in charge of the American Legion and a military burial then took place. Prayer was offered over the grave by Erwin T. Hicken. The flag was taken from the casket and folded by Guy Duke; and Earl Smith and Irwin Hicken presented this flag which draped the casket to Barney's mother, Mrs. McGuire, in behalf of the government of the United States of America. The wings which were awarded to Lt. McGuire were then awarded to his mother by Lt. Stoll, a buddy of Barney's who accompanied the body to Utah for interment. Lt. Stoll impressively pinned this set of wings on Mrs. McGuire. Lee Johnson called attention and the firing squad fired a volley of three shots as burial military honor to the departed soldier. Taps were sounded by Dick Wright and the "echo" by Ramon Duke.

Lt. Bernard McGuire was a war casualty, having met his death in an airplane accident in Ohio. He had completed 30 missions over Europe and had returned home on furlough last July. He was a

Lt. Bernard J. McGuire
HEBER CITY—Funeral services for Lt. Bernard J. McGuire, who was killed in an airplane crash Nov. 20, at Williamsport, Ohio, will be held Sunday at 2 p.m. in the Wasatch Stake Tabernacle. Bishop F.

Preston McGuire, an uncle of the officer, will be in charge.

The body of Lieutenant McGuire arrived in Heber City this morning, accompanied by Lt. Robert V. Stoll, a flying companion of Lieutenant McGuire's on missions over Europe. They had accomplished a sufficient number of missions over enemy territory to be returned to the United States and both had been assigned as flight instructors in Ohio.

Lt. McGuire
Friends may call at the McGuire residence in Daniel Ward Sunday until time for the services. Interment will be at the Heber City Cemetery.

Lt. Bernard McGuire Killed In Plane Crash In Ohio

Mrs. Minnie McGuire, Daniel, received word from the war department that her son, First Lt. Bernard J. McGuire, 23, was killed in an aircraft accident at Williamsport, Ohio, on Monday.

He was born September 28, 1921, at Daniel, and was graduated from Wasatch high school in 1939. He enlisted in March 1942, and received his wings April 12, 1943. He was assigned overseas in October. Upon completion of 30 missions over German territory he was awarded the Air Medal with three Oak Leaf Clusters and the distinguished Flying Cross. After he returned home in July 1944, he was awarded the Presidential Citation for his activity overseas.

He is survived by his mother, four sisters, Mrs. Laura Graham, Salt Lake; Mr. Clara Anderson, Tooele, Utah; Florence and Laree McGuire, Daniel; five brothers, Sgt. Rupert E. McGuire, South Pacific; A/C Bert H. McGuire, San Angelo, Texas; Bruce, Fay, and Clyde McGuire, Daniel.

Funeral arrangements are pending word from the two brothers in service.

